PROCLAMATIONS.

[L.S.] E. W. HAMBER,
Lieutenant-Governor.

CANADA:

PROVINCE OF BRITISH COLUMBIA.

GEORGE THE SIXTH, by the Grace of God, of Great Britain, Ireland, and the British Dominions beyond the Seas, KING, Defender of the Faith, Emperor of India.

To all to whom these Presents shall come—
GREETING.

A PROCLAMATION.

E. PEPLER, Deputy Attorney-General. { WHEREAS in and by section 3 of chapter 161 of the "Revised Statutes of British Columbia, 1936," being the "Liquor-control Plebiscites Act," it is provided that the Lieutenant-Governor in Council shall fix by Proclamation the date for taking the vote on any question to be submitted to the electors under the provisions of the said Act, and shall order the issue of writs in His Majesty's name for taking the vote, and shall determine the form of the writs, and shall fix the date for the return of the writs; and

Whereas Our said Lieutenant-Governor, by and with the advice of Our Executive Council, has been pleased to direct, by Order in Council in that behalf, that the question set out in the form of ballot contained in the said section shall be submitted to a vote of the electors of the Albion Polling Division of the Dewdney Electoral District, and that the date of taking the said vote shall be Saturday, the nineteenth day of February, 1938, and that a Writ in the form provided by the said Order in Council shall issue, to bear date the first day of February, 1938, and to be returnable on or before the twenty-first day of March, 1938:

NOW KNOW YE that We do by these Presents proclaim and declare that the date for taking the vote of the electors in the Albion Polling Division of the Dewdney Electoral District on the question set out in the form of ballot contained in section 3 of the "Liquor-control Plebiscites Act" shall be Saturday, the nineteenth day of February, 1938, and that a Writ as aforesaid shall issue, to bear date the first day of February, 1938, and to be returnable on or before the twenty-first day of March, 1938.

IN TESTIMONY WHEREOF, We have caused these Our Letters to be made Patent and the Great Seal of Our said Province to be hereunto affixed.

WITNESS, the Honourable ERIC WERGE HAMBER, Lieutenant-Governor of Our said Province, this first day of February, in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and thirty-eight, and in the second year of Our Reign.

By Command.

1841-fe3 G. M. WEIR,
Provincial Secretary.

DEPARTMENT OF LANDS (WATER RIGHTS BRANCH).

Amending Certificate of Approval of Undertaking.

WHEREAS the Westminster Power Company, Limited, is the holder of certificates approving its undertaking relative to the diversion and use of the waters of Mesliloet River, also known as Indian River, and its tributaries for the generation of electrical energy:

And whereas the said Company has petitioned for the amendment of its said certificates to extend the time fixed therein for the construction of the works authorized under the conditional water licences held by it:

And whereas it appears in the public interest to grant an extension of the said time and to specify the minimum amounts of money to be expended from time to time by the said Company in the construction of the aforesaid works:

This is to certify that the terms and conditions of the certificate of approval, dated June 6th, 1913, and amending certificates dated July 30th, 1915; July 18th, 1916; October 19th, 1916; March 29th, 1921; March 14th, 1922; March 19th, 1924; September 2nd, 1932; and January 23rd, 1936, respectively, granted to the Westminster Power Company, Limited, which terms and conditions relate to the time within which construction of works was to have been commenced or completed, are hereby rescinded, and the following substituted therefor:—

(a.) The Westminster Power Company, Limited, or its assigns shall before the 31st day of December, 1939, expend the sum of $150,000 in the construction of the works, purchase of machinery and equipment for the development and utilization of the waters of Mesliloet River and its tributaries, and the construction of any railways, roads, and wharves required for the transportation of materials and machinery to be used in the construction of the aforesaid works:

(b.) The Westminster Power Company, Limited, or its assigns shall before the 31st day of December, 1940, expend the sum of $500,000 in the construction of the works, purchase of machinery and equipment for the development and utilization of the waters of Mesliloet River and its tributaries, and the construction of any railways, roads, and wharves required for the transportation of materials and machinery to be used in the construction of the aforesaid works:

(c.) The Westminster Power Company, Limited, or its assigns shall before the 31st day of December, 1941, expend the sum of $1,000,000 in the construction of the works, purchase of machinery and equipment for the development and utilization of the waters of Mesliloet River and its tributaries, and the construction of any railways, roads, and wharves required for the transportation of materials and machinery to be used in the construction of the aforesaid works.

Dated at Victoria, B.C., this 25th day of January, 1938.

LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY.

PRIVATE BILLS.

EXCERPT FROM STANDING ORDERS RELATING TO PRIVATE BILLS.

100. (1.) All applications to the Legislative Assembly for Private Bills of any nature whatsoever shall require the publication of a notice clearly and distinctly specifying the nature and object of the application, and when the application refers to any proposed work, indicating sufficiently the location of the work, to be signed by or on behalf of the applicant.

(2.) Such notice shall be published in The British Columbia Gazette and once a week in one leading daily newspaper freely circulating in all parts of the Province. The notice in such newspaper to appear on Wednesday of each week.

(3.) When the proposed Bill is of such a nature that it may particularly affect one or more electoral districts, the notice shall furthermore be published once a week if possible in some newspaper in every electoral district affected, or if there be no newspaper published therein, then in a newspaper published in the electoral district nearest thereto.

(4.) The publication of such notice shall in all cases be continued for a period of four weeks during the interval of time between the close of the next preceding Session and the consideration of the petition.

97. No petition for any Private Bill shall be received by the House after the first ten days of each Session, nor may any Private Bill be presented to the House after the first three weeks of each Session, nor may any report of any Standing or Select Committee upon a Private Bill be received after the first four weeks of each Session, and no motion for the suspension or modification of this Standing Order shall be entertained by the House until the same has been reported on by the Committee on Standing Orders, or after reference made thereof at a previous sitting of the House to the Standing Committees charged with the consideration of Private Bills, who shall report thereon to the House. And if this rule shall be suspended or modified as aforesaid, the promoters of any Private Bill which is presented after the time hereinbefore limited, or for which the petition has been received after the time hereinbefore limited, shall in either case pay double the fees required in respect of such Bill by this rule, unless the House shall order to the contrary.

98. (1.) Any person seeking to obtain any Private Bill shall deposit with the Clerk of the House, eight clear days before the opening of the Session:—

- (a.) A printed copy of such Bill;
- (b.) A copy of the petition to be presented to the House;
- (c.) Copies of the notices published, with publication proved by a statutory declaration or affidavit to the satisfaction of the Clerk of the House.

(2.) At the time of depositing the Bill and petition the applicant shall also pay to the Clerk of the House the sum of three hundred dollars.

(3.) If a copy of the Bill, petition, and notices proved as aforesaid shall not have been so deposited in the hands of the Clerk of the House at least eight clear days before the opening of the Session or if the petition has not been presented to the House within the first ten days of the Session, the amount to be paid to the Clerk shall be six hundred dollars. If the Bill shall not pass second reading one-half of the fees shall be returned.

101. Every petition signed by an agent or attorney in fact shall be accompanied by the authority of such agent or attorney in fact, and the petition shall not be deemed to be filed with the Clerk until this is done.

102. Before any petition praying for leave to bring in a Private Bill for the erection of a toll-bridge is received by the House, the person or persons intending to petition for such Bill shall, upon giving the notice prescribed by Standing Order 100, also at the same time and in the same manner give notice of the rates which they intend to ask, the extent of the privilege, the height of the arches, the interval between the abutments or piers for the passage of rafts or vessels, and mentioning also whether they intend to erect a drawbridge or not, and the dimensions of the same.

103. (1.) All Private Bills for Acts of incorporation shall be so framed as to incorporate by reference to the clauses of the general Acts relating to the details to be provided for by such Bills: Special grounds shall be established for any proposed departure from this principle, or for the introduction of other provisions as to such details, and a note shall be appended to the Bill indicating the provisions thereof in which the general Act is proposed to be departed from. Bills which are not framed in accordance with this Standing Order shall be recast by the promoters and reprinted at their expense before any Committee passes upon the clauses.

(2.) Every Bill for an Act of incorporation, where a form of model Bill has been adopted, shall be drawn in accordance with the model Bill (copies of model Bills may be obtained from the Clerk of the House). Any provisions contained in any such Bill which are not in accord with the model Bill shall be inserted between brackets or underlined, and shall be so printed.

(3.) Any exceptional provisions that it may be proposed to insert in any Bill shall be clearly specified in the notice of application for same.

107. All Private Bills shall be prepared by the parties applying for the same, and printed in small-pica type, twenty-six ems by fifty ems, on good paper, in imperial octavo form, each page when folded measuring 10¾ inches by 7½ inches. There shall be a marginal number every fifth line of each page; the numbering of the lines is not to run on through the Bill, but the lines of each page are to be numbered separately. Three hundred copies of each Bill shall be deposited with the Clerk of the House immediately before the first reading. If amendments are made to any Bill during its progress before the Committee on Private Bills, or through the House, such Bill shall be reprinted by the promoters thereof.

In the case of Bills to incorporate companies, in addition to the fee of $300 mentioned in Rule 98, fees calculated on the capital of the company are payable at the same time. Further particulars can be had on application to the undersigned.

All cheques in payment of fees must be certified.

Dated May 1st, 1930.

W. H. LANGLEY,
Clerk, Legislative Assembly.

PROVINCIAL SECRETARY.

"NATUROPATHIC PHYSICIANS ACT."

PURSUANT to the provisions of section 8 of the "Naturopathic Physicians Act," being chapter 204 of the "Revised Statutes of British Columbia, 1936," His Honour the Lieutenant-Governor in Council has been pleased to approve the following regulations made by the Board of Naturopathic Physicians:—

THE ASSOCIATION OF NATUROPATHIC PHYSICIANS OF BRITISH COLUMBIA.

Pursuant to the "Naturopathic Physicians Act," being chapter 204 of the "Revised Statutes of British Columbia, 1936," the Board of Naturopathic Physicians enacts the following regulations:—

INTERPRETATION.

1. In these regulations, unless the context otherwise requires:— Interpretation.
- "Act" means the "Naturopathic Physicians Act";
- "Annual licence" means the certificate issued by the Board to a member, certifying that he has paid to the Board the annual fee prescribed by the regulations;
- "Applicant for examination" means a person applying to the Board to be examined pursuant to the regulations;
- "Applicant for registration" means a person applying for registration pursuant to the Act and the regulations;
- "Association" means The Association of Naturopathic Physicians of British Columbia, constituted under the Act;
- "Board" means the Board of Naturopathic Physicians;
- "Chairman" means the Chairman of the Board;
- "Examining Board" means an examining board appointed pursuant to section 7 of the Act;
- "Member" means a person holding a certificate of registration and an annual licence for the current calendar year;
- "Registrar" means the Registrar appointed by the Board;
- "Registration" means registration under the Act;
- "Regulations" means the regulations passed by the Board pursuant to the Act.

MEETINGS OF ASSOCIATION.

2. There shall be an annual general meeting of the members of the Association. Such annual general meeting shall be held in the first week in March of each year: Provided that if in any year the annual general meeting is not held in such week the Board may fix a date on which such annual general meeting shall be held. Annual general meeting.

3. Special general meetings of the members of the Association may be held at any time. Such special general meetings may be called by the President, and the President shall, if requested by the Board or if requested in writing signed by fifteen members, call a special general meeting. Special general meetings.

4. At least ten days' notice of every general meeting of members shall be given, and in the case of special general meetings the notice calling such meeting shall indicate the nature of the business to be transacted at such special general meeting. Notice of general meetings.

5. The President, or in his absence the Vice-President, shall preside at every general meeting of members: Provided that in the absence of both President and Vice-President the meeting may choose some other person to act as Chairman. Presiding officer.

6. No business shall be transacted at any general meeting unless a quorum of members is present at the time when the meeting proceeds to business. A quorum shall be fifteen members of the Association. Quorum.

7. If within half an hour from the time appointed for the meeting a quorum is not present, the meeting shall stand adjourned to the same day in the next week at the same time and place; and if at the adjourned meeting a quorum is not present within half an hour of the time appointed for the meeting, the members present shall be a quorum. Quorum at adjourned meeting.

8. At all general meetings of members voting shall be by a show of hands, unless any member shall call for a vote by ballot, in which case voting shall be by ballot. The presiding officer shall be entitled to one vote and shall not be entitled to a casting-vote. In the event of a tie the motion shall be declared lost. Voting.

9. The fiscal year of the Association shall be from the first day of February to the thirty-first day of January. Fiscal year.

10. At every annual general meeting there shall be laid before the meeting a financial statement for the preceding fiscal year. The financial statement shall be accompanied by the report of the Auditor. There shall also be laid before the meeting reports by the officers of the Association and by the Board. Business at annual general meeting.

ELECTION OF MEMBERS OF BOARD.

11. Subject to the provisions of section 12, members of the Board shall hold office for two years. Retiring members of the Board shall be eligible for re-election. Term of office of members of Board.

Election of members of Board.

12. At the annual general meeting immediately preceding the expiration of the term of office of the members of the first Board appointed pursuant to section 6 of the Act—namely, at the annual general meeting held in the first week of March, 1939—there shall be an election of members of the Board, such members to take office on the expiration of the term of office of the members of the first Board. At such election there shall be elected from among the members of the first Board three members who shall hold office until the annual general meeting in March, 1940. The remaining two members of the Board shall be elected from among the members of the Association at large, and they shall hold office until the annual general meeting in March, 1941. For the purposes of such election the names of the members of the first Board shall not require formal nomination but shall be deemed to be in nomination. The persons to be elected from among the members of the Association at large shall be nominated as hereinafter set forth. At the annual general meeting in March, 1940, there shall be elected from among the members of the Association at large three members of the Board to fill the vacancies then occurring, and at the annual general meeting in March, 1941, there shall be elected from among the members of the Association two members of the Board to fill the vacancies then occurring. Thereafter there shall be an annual election of members of the Board to fill the vacancies occurring in each year—namely, three vacancies and two vacancies in alternate years.

Casual vacancies in Board.

13. Casual vacancies occurring in the Board by death, resignation, or otherwise, may be filled at a special general meeting of members.

Nomination of
Board.

14. Subject to the provisions of section 12, no person shall be eligible for election as a member of the Board at any election unless he is qualified to vote at that election and is nominated in writing by two or more of the members of the Association. No person shall be deemed to be nominated unless he signifies his acceptance of nomination by an acceptance in writing signed by him. At least thirty days prior to the date set for the annual general meeting, the Secretary shall forward to each member a nomination-blank in the form provided in the Schedule to these regulations. Nominations shall be in the hands of the Secretary at least fourteen days before the annual general meeting. The Secretary shall cause to be printed a ballot containing all the names of those persons nominated for election to the Board, and at the annual general meeting ballots shall be distributed to the members present and each member shall be entitled to vote for the number of candidates to be elected. Two scrutineers, elected by the members at the meeting, and the Secretary shall count the ballots and declare those receiving the highest number of ballots to be elected. In the event of a tie the presiding officer shall have a casting-vote.

ELECTION OF OFFICERS.

Election of officers.

15. At every annual general meeting the members shall from among the members of the Board elect a President and a first Vice-President; they shall also from among the members at large elect the second Vice-President, Secretary, Treasurer, and Registrar. The offices of Secretary, Treasurer, and Registrar or any two of them may be held by one person.

SEAL.

Seal.

16. The Association shall have a seal bearing the words "The Association of Naturopathic Physicians of British Columbia."

MEETINGS OF BOARD.

Meetings of Board.

17. The Board may meet together for the discharge of business, adjourn and otherwise regulate their meetings as they think fit.

Presiding officer.

18. The President, or in his absence the Vice-President, shall preside at every meeting of the Board: Providing that in the absence of both the President and Vice-President the Board may choose a temporary Chairman.

Voting at Board meetings.

19. Questions arising at any meeting shall be decided by a majority of votes. Voting shall be by a show of hands unless any member of the Board shall call for a vote by ballot, in which case voting shall be by ballot. The presiding officer may vote but he shall not have a second or casting vote, and in the event of a tie the motion shall be declared lost.

Quorum of Board.

20. The presence of at least three members of the Board shall be necessary to constitute a meeting of the Board for the exercise of its powers.

Default of quorum.

21. In default of a quorum after the lapse of thirty minutes beyond the hour of meeting, the President, or in his absence the Secretary, may adjourn the meeting to another time, and the members not in attendance shall be notified of the time and place of the adjourned meeting.

Secretary of the Board.

22. The Secretary of the Association shall act as Secretary of the Board.

Calling meetings
of Board.

23. The Board shall meet at the call of the President or upon the written request of three members of the Board filed with the Secretary.

Notice of meetings
of Board.

24. Seventy-two hours' notice of each meeting of the Board shall be given by the Secretary or in his absence by the President.

Method of notice.

25. Notice of meetings of the Board may be given by word of mouth, telephone, telegram, or letter duly mailed charges prepaid. Such telegram or letter shall be addressed to the residence or the usual place of business of the members of the Board. A notice sent by telegram shall be deemed to have been delivered within three hours of the filing of the same in the telegraph-office, and a notice sent by mail shall be deemed to have been delivered at the time when it would reach the person to whom it was addressed in the ordinary course.

26. A written resolution signed by all the members of the Board shall be valid and binding and as effective as if such resolution had been passed at a meeting of the Board duly convened. Resolution signed by all members of Board.

27. No notice of motion shall be necessary, but upon the presentation of a motion a resolution may be passed deferring consideration of the motion until the next meeting of the Board, whereupon the motion shall be laid upon the table until the next meeting of the Board, at which time it shall be considered and disposed of unless otherwise ordered. Motions, if so requested by the presiding officer, shall be submitted in writing and signed by the mover and seconder. Notice of motion not necessary.

28. Minutes of meetings of the Board, after being read by the Secretary, shall, if approved, be signed by the President or other presiding officer. Minutes of meetings of Board.

29. The order of business at meetings of the Board shall be as follows:— Order of business.

1. Reading of the minutes.
2. Business arising out of the minutes.
3. Communications.
4. General business.
5. Reports.
6. Telegrams.
7. Complaints.

30. In cases not otherwise provided for, parliamentary practice, as nearly as may be, shall be observed. Parliamentary practice to be observed.

PROVISIONS RELATING TO THE SECRETARY.

31. The Secretary shall keep records or minutes of all the proceedings, both of the Board and of the Association, in a book to be called the minute-book, and shall conduct all necessary correspondence of the Board and of the Association. Secretary to keep minutes.

32. The Secretary shall prepare all necessary certificates and other documents appertaining to the business of the Board and of the Association, and shall perform all other services usually incidental to the office of secretary. Secretary to prepare certificates, etc.

33. The Secretary shall receive such remuneration as may be fixed from time to time by the Board. Remuneration of Secretary.

THE MANAGEMENT AND DISPOSITION OF FUNDS.

34. The Treasurer shall be the custodian of the funds of the Association, and shall deposit the same promptly as received to the credit of and in the name of the Association in such chartered bank as may be designated at any time by the Board. Custody of funds.

35. The funds of the Association shall be paid out of the bank account of the Association by cheque signed by the Treasurer and one member of the Board, or in the absence of the Treasurer by any two members of the Board. Payments by cheque.

36. The funds of the Association shall be disbursed only for such purposes as may be authorized by the Board. Authorization of payments.

37. The Board shall appoint a chartered accountant as auditor of the accounts of the Association, and the auditor shall hold office at the pleasure of the Board. The auditor shall audit the accounts of the Association at least once in each year, and shall also audit the accounts at any other time when directed so to do by the Board or by the Association. The Board shall fix the remuneration of the auditor. Accounts to be audited.

38. A financial statement made up to the end of the fiscal year shall be prepared by the Treasurer immediately after the end of each fiscal year, and it shall be presented by him to the auditor, who shall make a report thereon to be submitted at the annual general meeting of the Association. Annual financial statement.

DUTIES OF THE REGISTRAR.

39. The Board shall cause to be kept by the Registrar a book or register to be known as the "Register of Naturopathic Physicians entitled to practise in British Columbia," hereafter called the "Register," in which shall be entered the name and address of every member of the Association and the date of his admission. The Registrar shall keep the Register in accordance with the provisions of the Act and these regulations, and he shall from time to time make the necessary changes in the addresses of the members, and shall make the necessary entries in the Register to give effect to the cancellation or suspension of the registration of any member or the reinstatement of the registration of any person as a member. Register of Naturopathic Physicians.

FEEES.

40. Each member of the Association shall pay to the Association an annual fee of $25, which annual fee shall be payable on the first day of March in the year for which the same is imposed, and each member on payment of the said fee shall obtain a certificate, under the seal of the Association, stating his qualification to practise and that the certificate is in force for the year in respect of which the annual fee is imposed, and it shall Annual fees.

be the duty of the Registrar upon payment of the fee to issue the certificate. The annual fee shall be paid by each member of the Association so long as his name is in the Register, whether he is resident in the Province or not, and whether he is practising or not: Provided that any member of the Association may at his own request have his name removed from the Register, and any member whose name has been so removed may have his name replaced on the Register at his own request, without examination, by paying to the Association the annual fees which would have been payable by him if his name had not been removed. The said reinstatement fee shall not exceed $100.

Penalty for non-payment of annual fee.

41. The Board shall have the power to cancel or suspend the registration of any member who has not paid the annual fee on the due date, and the Board shall have power to reinstate such registration upon payment of the annual fee.

Fee for registration.

42. The fee for registration under section 10 of the Act shall be $200, which will include the annual fee to the end of the fiscal year in which registration is made. The fee for registration under section 5 of the Act shall be $50.

Fees to be the property of the Association.

43. All annual fees, dues, and registration fees payable under the Act or under these regulations shall be the property of the Association and shall be received and accounted for by the Treasurer.

TREASURER TO PROVIDE BOND.

Treasurer to provide a bond.

44. The Treasurer shall provide a bond to the satisfaction of the Board for the true and faithful performance of his duties as Treasurer, in such sum as may be fixed by the Board. The expense of the bond shall be paid from the funds of the Association.

REGISTRATION AND EXAMINATION.

Time and place of examinations.

45. The Examining Board shall appoint the time and place for the holding of examinations, and shall, at the expense of the Association, make such public advertisement thereof as it may think proper.

Application for registration.

46. Every applicant for registration as a naturopathic physician under subsection (1) of section 10 of the Act shall file with the Registrar:—

- (a.) Evidence of having passed the Provincial junior matriculation examination or an examination equivalent thereto;
- (b.) A certificate of graduation from a recognized school or college of naturopathy or drugless therapeutics. (For the purposes of this section a recognized school or college of naturopathy or drugless therapeutics shall be deemed to be an institution for teaching a residence course of not less than four calendar years of eight months in each year and not less than four thousand school-hours in the four years);
- (c.) Evidence of identification;
- (d.) Affidavits of two reputable citizens of the Province attesting the good moral character of the applicant:

Each applicant shall also pass before the Examining Board an examination touching his fitness and capacity to practise as a naturopathic physician. Such examination shall be on the following subjects: Anatomy, physiology, chemistry, pathology, histology, physical diagnosis, hygiene and sanitation, obstetrics, biological chemistry, homœopathic materia medica and therapeutics, bacteriology, endocrinology, phytotherapy, dietetics, minor surgery, anatomical adjustments, manipulative and bloodless surgery, orthopædics, remedial psychology, electrotherapy, hydrotherapy, physiotherapy, helio- and photo-therapy, medical jurisprudence, and philosophy of naturopathy.

Form of application.

47. Every applicant for examination to obtain a certificate of registration as a naturopathic physician shall furnish to the Examining Board the information indicated in a form of application to be furnished by the Board in the form approved by the Examining Board from time to time. Such application shall be filed with the Registrar at least one month before the date of the examinations. The applicant shall at the time of the filing of such application pay to the Association the sum of $25, for which credit will be given on account of the registration fee.

Inquiry into qualifications.

48. The Examining Board shall enquire into every candidate's qualifications, and if the Examining Board is satisfied that the candidate is entitled to sit for an examination it shall so notify the candidate.

Payment of registration fee.

49. Every candidate who presents himself for examination shall deposit with the Registrar the sum of $200, which includes the registration fee and the annual fee to the end of the fiscal year in which he applies. The said sum of $200 shall be deposited at least two weeks before the time set for the examination. The sum of $25 referred to in section 47 hereof shall be deemed to be a payment on account of the said sum of $200.

Procedure following examination.

50. If the candidate passes in all subjects to the satisfaction of the Examining Board a licence to practise naturopathy shall be issued as hereinafter mentioned to such candidate. If a candidate shall fail in not more than three subjects of the examination, such candidate may, without losing credit for the subjects passed, and by paying an additional fee of $50, be permitted, within one year from the date of failure to pass, to take another examination on the subjects in which the candidate failed, such examination to be taken at the convenience of the Examining Board.

On failure, portion of fee to be returned.

51. If any candidate is unsuccessful in his examinations, the Association shall return to him the sum of $150.

52. The Examining Board shall decide as to whether or not any applicant has duly passed the examinations and shall communicate its decision to the Board of Naturopathic Physicians. The Board of Naturopathic Physicians shall thereupon pass a resolution that the candidates who have passed the examinations be registered as naturopathic physicians. The Board of Naturopathic Physicians shall designate a time and place at which the successful candidates shall appear before the Board to receive their certificates to practise. The successful candidates shall take such oath as may be prescribed by the Board of Naturopathic Physicians.

Board to issue certificates.

DISCIPLINE.

53. The Board shall have power to discipline and control registered naturopathic physicians, and shall have power to cancel or suspend the registration of any member who has been guilty of misconduct, or who has displayed such ignorance or incompetence as to render it desirable in the public interest that his registration should be cancelled or suspended, or whose application for registration is found by the Board to have been based on any false or fraudulent statement, or who is in default in the payment of any fees prescribed under the Act or under the regulations, and the Board shall have power to reinstate any member whose registration has been cancelled or suspended.

Discipline.

54. When any complaint is made charging a member with misconduct, such complaint shall be reduced to writing and shall be submitted by the Secretary to the Board.

Complaint to be in writing.

55. If the Board is satisfied that a case has been made out, it shall appoint a time and place for the investigation of the said complaint, and the Secretary shall send a copy of the said complaint to the person against whom it is made, and shall cause a written notice to be served upon such person as well as upon the complainant stating the time and place appointed for the investigation.

Investigation of complaints.

56. The Board may if it thinks fit adjourn any investigation from time to time.

Adjournments.

57. The Board may appoint counsel to conduct the investigation on behalf of the Board, and any person against whom or by whom a complaint is made may be represented by counsel.

Counsel.

58. The Board may either find the complaint proved or dismiss the complaint. If the Board finds the complaint proved it shall impose such punishment upon the member as it thinks proper.

Decision of Board.

59. Any resolution by which the registration of any member is cancelled or suspended shall be reduced to writing and passed by a majority of the members of the Board who have taken part in the hearing of the complaint, and the Chairman shall note upon the said resolution the names of the members of the Board present, and their vote, and shall certify the same under his hand, and such resolution shall thereupon be filed with the record of the proceedings.

Cancellation or suspension to be in writing.

60. In case the parties or any of them fail to appear at the hearing or at any adjournment thereof the Board may proceed in his or their absence.

Absence of parties.

61. Where the Board directs the cancellation from the Register of the name of any member, or directs the cancellation of any other entry upon the Register, the name of such member or such entry shall not again, subject to the provisions for appeal contained in the Act, be entered on the Register except by direction of the Board.

No reinstatement except by order of Board.

62. If the Board thinks fit in any case it may direct the Registrar to restore to the Register any name or entry cancelled therefrom, either without fee or on payment of such fee, not exceeding the registration fee, as the Board may fix, and the Registrar shall restore the same accordingly.

Reinstatement on Register.

63. If any person procures or causes to be procured his registration under the Act by means of any false or fraudulent statement, it shall be lawful for the Registrar, upon receipt of sufficient evidence of the falsity or fraudulent character of the statement, to represent the matter to the Board, and the Board may, after giving such person an opportunity to be heard, direct the name of such person to be erased from the Register, and the Registrar shall thereupon erase the name accordingly and shall cause the fact of such erasure to be published in The British Columbia Gazette, and the person whose name has been erased shall, as from the date of such erasure, cease to be a member of the Association and shall cease to enjoy any of the privileges enjoyed and conferred by registration under the Act.

Procuring registration by fraud.

64. Any member who has been disqualified or suspended from practice may apply to the Board to be restored to the right to practise, and the Board may, in its discretion, by a resolution restore such person to his former rights and privileges as a member.

Application for reinstatement.

65. Any person registered under the Act who has been convicted in any Court of justice, whether in this Province or elsewhere, of any indictable offence, shall thereby forfeit his rights as a naturopathic physician, and by direction of the Board his name may be erased from the Register, and in case a person who has been convicted of an indictable offence presents himself for registration the Registrar shall refuse such registration unless the Board, after investigation, directs registration to be made.

Naturopathic physician convicted of indictable offence.

SALARIES AND REMUNERATION.

Remuneration of officers and solicitor.

66. The Board shall have power to fix from time to time the salaries of officers and servants of the Association, and the remuneration to be granted to the solicitor for the Association and to pay the same.

Fees and expenses of Board and Examining Board.

67. There shall be paid to the members of the Board and to the members of the Examining Board reasonable fees and travelling expenses, such fees and expenses to be fixed from time to time by the Board.

ADVERTISING.

Advertising.

68. Constructive educational publicity by members is encouraged, but no members shall use or cause to be used in any manner whatsoever advertising matter which contains misstatements, falsehoods, misrepresentation, distorted or fabulous statements relative to cures, or any statements which might in any way reflect against a fellow naturopathic physician. Any member committing a breach of this section shall be deemed to be guilty of unprofessional conduct.

REGISTRATION IN SPECIAL CASES.

Naturopathic
physicians registered elsewhere.

69. The Board may, with the approval and consent of the Board of Supervision, admit to practise as a naturopathic physician in the Province any person who is of full age, good conduct and repute, and who has been duly admitted in accordance with law to practise naturopathy in any Province, State, or country, and who is duly registered in such Province, State, or country as a naturopathic physician: Provided the educational and professional standards and requirements in such Province, State, or country for the admission to registration as a naturopathic physician are not less in any particular than the standards and requirements in this Province; and provided further that such Province, State, or country extends equivalent reciprocal rights to naturopathic physicians registered in this Province. Before such person is registered as a member he shall produce evidence to the satisfaction of the Board of the matters set forth in this section, and shall pay the registration fees and the annual fee.

Registered physicians.

70. Any person who is a registered physician in good standing in any part of the British Empire may apply to be admitted as a naturopathic physician in this Province and to be registered as a member. Such person shall be required to pass an examination in the theory and practice of naturopathy and, on passing such examination to the satisfaction of the Examining Board and upon payment of the registration fees and annual fee, the Board may admit him as a naturopathic physician and direct his name to be entered on the Register as a member.

AMENDING REGULATIONS.

Amending regulations.

71. These regulations may be amended only at a special meeting of the Board called for that purpose. Fourteen days' notice of such meeting shall be given to each member, and such notice shall specify the amendments proposed to be made. If at such meeting more than one member of the Board votes against any proposed amendment the amendment shall be declared lost, and any member of the Board who is unable to attend such meeting may vote by proxy given to any other member of the Board. Amendments proposed and adopted at any special meeting for this purpose shall not become effective until approved by the Lieutenant-Governor in Council and published in The British Columbia Gazette.
